		_

Edinburgh International Book Festival 11 - 27 August 2018

An easy to read introduction to the 2018 Edinburgh International Book Festival programme

With thanks to...

ARC Scotland, PAMIS and the National Involvement Network

Finding events and booking

This document lists a small number of the events and themes of the 2018 Edinburgh International Book Festival, which we hope will be of interest. However there are hundreds of other events to choose from too.

FREEDON

The easiest way to find events is on our website, edbookfest.co.uk. You can also pick up a copy of our brochure from a number of shops, cafes, libraries and other places, or you can request that one be posted to you.

When you've chosen the event(s) you'd like to attend, you can book tickets online, by phone or in person.

- Book online at www.edbookfest.co.uk
- Phone the Box Office on 0345 373 5888
- Buy in person at The Hub on Castlehill until Fri 3 August, or at the Book Festival George Street and Charlotte Square Gardens from Sat 4 August

See our website or brochure for:

- More information about the Book Festival
- Tips for planning your visit
- Accessibility information
- Much more

Prices vary by event. Concession tickets are available for over 60s, students, under 16s, people with disabilties and more. Carers can claim a free ticket too.

Edinburgh International Book Festival

FREEDON

11 – 27 August 2018

While a ticket must be bought for most events, there's lots to do for free at the Book Festival.

- Start each day with Ten at Ten, a morning reading from one of our Festival authors
- Amnesty International host readings focused on global human rights issues
- Unbound closes each evening with authors and performers in lively, fun events

See our Free Events category online for a full list of events.

Hear about the super sleuths, mysteries and villains from your favourite crime fiction stories. Authors appearing include:

- Scottish superstar Val McDermid
- John Harvey with Ian Rankin
- The bestselling Stuart MacBride
- Chris Brookmyre and Marisa Haetzman

See our Crime/Thriller category online for a full list of events.

The glorious and the grimy sides of sport are explored at the Book Festival. Guests include:

- Cyclist Mark Beaumont
- BBC presenter & triathlete Louise Minchin
- Former Arsenal captain Tony Adams
- Former chair of UK Athletics Ed Warner

See our Sport and Society theme online for a full list of events.

Music

Musicians and lovers of music from across genres and generations appear. See:

- BBC Radio Scotland's Vic Galloway
- Iron Maiden frontman Bruce Dickinson
- Viv Albertine, guitarist of The Slits
- Godfathers of hip hop The Last Poets

See our Music Matters theme online for a full list of events.

Edinburgh International Book Festival

FREEDON

11 – 27 August 2018

Take a theatrical journey into books with events bringing stories to life. Enjoy:

- Staged performances from Muriel Spark's The Driver's Seat
- Free WhatsApp storytelling experience The Right Kind of Chaos - text SUBSCRIBE to 07411228363 on WhatsApp to take part
- Musical numbers from Visible Fictions' adaptation of Cathy Forde's Fat Boy Swim

See our Performance/Theatre category online for a full list of events.

Talented poets and spoken word performers show their skill with verse. Check out:

- Scottish Makar Jackie Kay
- Jamaica's Poet Laureate Lorna Goodison
- Political poets Matt Abbott & Joelle Taylor
- Rising stars Claire Askew & Zaffar Kunial

See our Poetry category theme online for a full list of events.

Discover hit new novels to make you laugh, gasp and cry. This year we welcome:

- Gavin and Stacey actress Ruth Jones
- Bestselling romantic novelist Jenny Colgan
- The much-loved Jasper Fforde
- The Boy in the Striped Pyjamas author John Boyne

See our Fiction category online for a full list of events.

Our Stripped programme celebrates comics and graphic novels in style. This year:

- Visit the Edinburgh Comic Art Fair
- Meet actor Jim Broadbent with artist Dix
- See Scottish comics icon Frank Quitely
- Discover A Graphic Novel of Women

See our Stripped theme online for a full list of events.

Edinburgh International Book Festival

FREEDON

11 – 27 August 2018

Politicians, writers and audiences share ideas about society at the Festival. You can see:

- Liberal Democrat deputy leader Jo Swinson
- Conservative rising star Jesse Norman
- Jason Cowley, New Statesman editor
- Retired Labour peer Roy Hattersley

See our Politics for Change theme online for a full list of events.

Local and global history comes to life at the Book Festival. You can learn about:

- The Battle of Arnhem with Antony Beevor
- Queen Victoria's reign with David Cannadine
- Martin Luther King's legacy with Victoria Adukwei Bulley & Eloise Greenfield
- The fall of the dinosaurs with Steve Brusatte

See our History category online for a full list of events.

Explore strange and sometimes sinister worlds at the Book Festival, in the company of:

- Tolkien tales illustrator Alan Lee
- Damon Young and his Reading Workshop on Conan the Barbarian
- Scary short story writers Camilla Grudova & Helen McClory

See our Sci-Fi & Fantasy category online for full a list of events.

Hear from writers grappling with the big ecological questions of our age, including:

- Fred Pearce on our nuclear age
- Maryn McKenna on industrial farming
- Tony Juniper on the future of rainforests
- Blue Planet's Jo Ruxton on our oceans

See our Environment category online for a full list of events.

11 – 27 August 2018

Using this document

If viewing on a computer: All underlined words are clickable links which will take you to the relevant event(s).

FREEDON

Once you've chosen and clicked on an event, you'll see a page that looks like this:

Note the date, time, venue and price are all listed above the text

Louise Minchin

🋗 Thu 16 Aug 11:45 - 12:45 🏶 Baillie Gifford Main Theatre 🛛 🏘 £12.00, £10.00

FROM BBC PRESENTER TO TRIATHLETE

It started out as a fun BBC Breakfast cycling stunt in 2012 and culminated in presenter and journalist Louise Minchin wearing the colours of Great Britain at the World Triathlon Championship in 2015. Dare to Tri, her new book, is the story of how a newly discovered sport became a TV presenter's passion and then her complete obsession.

Part of our Sport and Society series of events.

Buy Tickets »

Use the large green Buy Tickets button to begin your online booking

11 – 27 August 2018

Using this document

If viewing on paper:

All underlined names can be searched for online using our website search function.

Look for this symbol to start your search. ————	Q Events
---	-----------------

FREEDON

When clicked you'll see the below pop up.

Search for events		×
i Use one or more of the search filters below to find events.	s.
Q Title, author or keywords	Select Date	~
Select Theme	∽ Select Category	~
 Browse this year's themes » Only events for adults Only Baillie Gifford Children's Programme Children aged 0 to 18 years For any age (no filter) 	 Include Sold Out Only BSL interpreted Only Captioned events Only Learning disability friendly events
	e these drop- own boxes to	rch »
b	e events listed by Theme or Category

If you or your friend or companion have difficulties with online booking, you can speak to our staff by phone or in person to purchase tickets. See page 2 for details.