Background

The Edinburgh International Book Festival brings leading and emerging Scottish, UK, and international authors and thinkers together to inspire each other and audiences through an extensive programme of public events, including conversation, interactive activities, and performance. The Book Festival takes place in person in Edinburgh but has a significant digital offering to reach authors and audiences around the world.

The Book Festival has a reputation as a powerful forum for the public to exchange views with writers and experts on a wide range of issues: social, ethical, and political as well as literary and cultural. At the heart of the Book Festival's activity is an integrated approach to creative learning and education, with the aim of expanding participation in democratic discussion, fostering a love of reading and developing engaged, knowledgeable audiences of all ages and backgrounds.

The Children's Programme - comprising author events, activities, and workshops - is produced for young audiences of all ages, from babies to teenagers. In addition, an extensive Schools' Programme is created for primary and secondary pupils, as well as teachers, with thousands of school children attending each year. All tickets to schools' events are free, and each child goes home with a free book.

Through our Communities Programme we bring local people and organisations from across Scotland together with professional writers and artists to have big conversations, unearth new stories and provide a space for everyone's voice to be heard. As an organisation of local, national, and international reach, we shine a light on underrepresented communities, supporting them to develop their voices through cultural activity.
