Edinburgh International Book Festival Charlotte Square Gardens, 9 – 25 August 2008 Entry to our garden is FREE

Celebrate with us

25 years ago this summer, a few tents popped up among the trees in Charlotte Square Gardens and the Book Festival was born. The last quarter century has seen incredible growth. We now defy the laws of space, physics and botany (the trees have grown along with the festival) to create a magical, pan-global cornucopia of words and ideas in our gorgeous garden each year. This is the biggest, most international, most gloriously stimulating celebration of its kind, anywhere in the world. We rejoice in being the beating literary heart of Edinburgh, the world's first UNESCO City of Literature, the greatest of all festival cities.

Want to see Sean Connery exclusively launching his long-awaited autobiography? Come on in! Fancy dressing up as a Flower Fairy? Be our guest! Interested in politics, ethics, world affairs, the environment? Our programme is bursting with major thinkers, ready to share their thoughts and hear yours. Hungry to discover other cultures? We are bringing writers from over 40 different countries, to open our eyes and minds – and nearly 200 Scottish authors too, our own land in its full, proud, international place. Eager that offspring of all ages should have imagination-firing fun? Our RBS Children's Programme offers endless delight, an open invitation to fall in love with reading forever.

Our 25th anniversary festival is both intimate and abundant. Here is where you will have meetings and moments you will never forget. Choose from over 700 events, each one unique, chosen and created to spark something special. Come and celebrate!

Catherine Lockerbie, Director

Over 700 events and creative workshops take place in Charlotte Square Gardens (just off the West End of Princes Street).

Lively debates on political and ethical issues of every kind – war, the environment, medicine and more. Join in and have your say!

Children's events to engage and inspire all ages from tots to teens, plus the RBS Children's Bookshop, a space dedicated to children's literature.

A large independent bookshop for adults selling a huge selection of fiction and non-fiction – all proceeds from both of our bookshops are put straight back into the Book Festival.

Food and drink – fairtrade coffees and teas, homemade cakes, ice-cream, light meals, wines, whiskies and beer are available throughout the festival from our three cafés.

Free live music in the Highland Park Spiegeltent every night (from Sun 10 Aug) and most lunchtimes.

25th Anniversary Opening Event politics MEET THE AUTHOR

10.00am | RBS Main Theatre | £9.00 £7.00

An opening event like no other! To celebrate our 25th anniversary and launch this year's festival, we bring you a renowned figure from the world of politics in a unique and illuminating conversation with Ian Rankin. To keep up the suspense, we will only announce the name of our mystery guest the day before our opening. Book now!

Ali Smith

WAKE UP TO WORDS

10.15am | Highland Park Spiegeltent | £9.00 £7.00

A glorious, generous, uplifting start to our morning series of readings. Scottish writer Ali Smith's extraordinary insight has won her numerous awards and much devotion. Her latest work, Girl Meets Boy, is a beautiful contemporary reworking of Ovid's most joyful metamorphosis, setting the tone perfectly for our transforming literary carnival. Chaired by Brian Taylor.

Free coffee and pastries. Sponsored by Green Mountain Coffee Roasters

nations

11.00am | Peppers Theatre | £9.00 £7.00

What drives the deep shifts in the new global order? The distinguished writer and commentator Dilip Hiro argues that oil, with its new huge consumers China and India, will shift the balance of power away from the West and fuel new wars. Everything you ever wanted to know about petroleum, but were too petrified to ask!

Thinking of Giving Up Your Day Job?

workshop

WRITING WORKSHOP

11.00am - 12.30pm | Writers' Retreat | £12.00 £10.00

To begin our hugely popular series of hands-on writing workshops, author Keith A Charters focuses on how you can get your writing career off the ground. Many authors juggle their writing with a day job but aspire to write full-time. Short of negotiating a huge advance, how can you justify taking the plunge? (Maximum 25 places)

Halima Bashir FOCUS ON AFRICA

nations

12 noon | ScottishPower Studio Theatre | £9.00 £7.00

Darfur sometimes seems the forgotten genocide. Come and meet an inspirational young doctor born in the remote Western Sudanese desert, whose tribe was attacked by the Janjaweed and she herself subjected to unspeakable brutality, from which she escaped. Intensely powerful, essential insight. With award-winning reporter and co-author Damien Lewis.

Russell Razzaque EAST AND WEST

12.30pm | Peppers Theatre | £9.00 £7.00

What turns a human being into a human bomb, an ordinary Western teenager into a terrorist? In a highly revealing insight into Islamic suicide bombing seen from the inside, Russell Razzaque begins our vital, seminal East and West series for this year, examining how extremism ferments and how it can be detected before it's too late.

Alex James

THE SCOTTISHPOWER SERIES

1.30pm | RBS Main Theatre | £9.00 £7.00

Alex James, former rock star, broadcaster, farmer and commentator, is a witty, engaging guide to the mad goings-on behind the scenes of 1990s Britpop. In his memoir Bit of a Blur, the bassist recounts the highs and lows of life in one of the most successful British bands of all time. Chaired by James Jauncey.

Imran Ahmad & Sathnam Sanghera

biography

EAST AND WEST

2.30pm | Peppers Theatre | £9.00 £7.00

A moving, funny, and hugely engaging memoir of a Sikh family in Britain, and a revelation which leads back into the family's past in the Punjab. Sathnam Sanghera, a leading journalist, tells of schizophrenia and secrets, and living between the world of his parents and the different possibilities of life in the UK. It is our pleasure to welcome back Imran Ahmad with his own wonderful memoir of his Pakistani family.

David Owen POLITICS AND POWER

politics

3.00pm | RBS Main Theatre | £9.00 £7.00

Does power really go to politicians' heads? Sometimes disastrously so argues David Owen, himself one of the most distinguished politicians of his day. In The Hubris Syndrome: Bush, Blair and the Intoxication of Power, Lord Owen pinpoints the symptoms of a mental syndrome with damaging consequences including the tragic incompetence of the war in Iraq. Chaired by Magnus Linklater.

THE WRITING BUSINESS

6.45pm | Peppers Theatre | £6.00 £4.00

Our ever popular series on pragmatic aspects of writing, being published and publishing returns by popular demand! What are publishers looking for? What hurdles litter the road to publication and how can you jump them? Nicola Morgan, Chair of the Society of Authors in Scotland, spent twenty one years discovering how not to be published, and has now written around ninety published books, including award-winners and UK bestsellers. She shares her knowledge and practical advice.

Supported by The Society of Authors

Poppy Adams & Catherine O'Flynn FIRST FICTION

7.30pm | Writers' Retreat | £6.00 £4.00

Two of the most outstanding debut novels of the year, haunting and accomplished. Catherine O'Flynn's What Was Lost took the Costa First Novel Award: an enthralling depiction of a young girl mysteriously disappearing in a shopping centre which has a spooky life of its own. Poppy Adams's The Behaviour of Moths is an extraordinarily absorbing tale of a moth-collector spinster whose strange ways become ever more sinister. Spine-tingling.

Tony Parsons MEET THE AUTHOR

fiction

8.00pm | RBS Main Theatre | £9.00 £7.00

Hugely popular, his finger on the pulse of our times, Tony Parsons gets to the heart of contemporary society, sex, desire and longing. My Favourite Wife sees an ambitious lawyer in Shanghai exposed to the temptations of an affair. Parsons brings a male view to traditionally female territory with areat success.

THE AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL EVENT

8.30pm | ScottishPower Studio Theatre | £9.00 £7.00

Images from Abu Ghraib defined what seemed appalling barbarism on the part of otherwise ordinary American troops involved in the invasion of Iraq. In Standard Operating Procedure, Philip Gourevitch, whose seminal work on the Rwandan genocide shocked the West, looks at the reality, the interpretation and the meaning of what happened in that hellish prison. Chaired by Allan Little.

Justine Picardie

fiction

FINE FICTION

8.30pm | Peppers Theatre | £9.00 £7.00

A remarkable story from an accomplished novelist that blurs the distinction between fact and fiction as it draws together some of the greatest literary families of the past 200 years. In Daphne, Justine Picardie unravels the intriguing story of Daphne de Maurier's obsession with the infamous Brontë brother, Bramwell.

A word from our Media Partners

Once again The Times is delighted to be involved in sponsoring the Edinburgh International Book Festival, which grows in stature every year. The experience of everyone who took part last year, speakers, audiences and sponsors, was uniformly positive. We had a great time and we confidently expect this year to be every bit as enjoyable.

Magnus Linklater, Scotland Editor, The Times

The Sunday Times Scotland is delighted to be taking part in the Edinburgh International Book Festival as media sponsor. The partnership of Scotland's biggest selling quality newspaper and one of the world's biggest and most influential literary events will be a winning combination. This year promises to be an exceptional event with hundreds of gifted writers appearing. You can read about them and their work first in the Sunday Times Scotland.

Nations Unlimited

One of the most important of our over-arching themes is our deep look into the future of nation states - a matter which affects every one of us. The recent influx of Polish and other Eastern European populations into Britain as the European Union expands; the close and complex relationship between Britain and the USA; the shifting balance of global power towards fast-developing new nations; the continuing repercussions of the break up of the old Soviet Union - all of these issues and more, defining our future and that of our children, are examined in our festival by world experts. Look out especially for our Focus on China, part of China Now in Scotland, continuing our examination of the stunning explosion of economic and cultural growth of that vast nation, coming to a head in this year of the Beijing Olympics.

British Council Bookcase

We bring writers from all over the world but we bring other special visitors too – publishers, festival directors, literature lovers and professionals who come to Edinburgh to discover the very best of our writing and offer fantastic new opportunities, including touring and being published abroad, to the writers they hear and meet. Every second year we work closely with the British Council, committed to promoting the very best of British culture across the world. With their support and that of the Scottish Arts Council, we offer a series of events for the public and for invited delegates alike, a stunning showcase within the greater showcase of the festival itself. Come and share the discoveries. Look out especially, on the middle Saturday of the festival and Bookcase, for our 'Expo' event enabled by funding from the Scottish Government – brand new work specifically commissioned from four top Scottish writers, to be premiered in Edinburgh, published, and then toured to Norway for Stavanger's inspirational year as City of Culture 2008.

James Kelman MEET THE AUTHOR

11.30am | RBS Main Theatre | £9.00 £7.00

A new novel from James Kelman is a major literary event. The only Scottish writer to win both the Booker and the James Tait Black Memorial Prize, Kelman is a towering figure in world literature. His latest work, Kieron Smith, Boy is a powerful, poignant, empathetic evocation of a boy growing up in the new housing schemes at a time of deep social change. Chaired by Brian Taylor.

Ziauddin Sardar EAST AND WEST

fiction

12 noon | ScottishPower Studio Theatre | £9.00 £7.00

A brilliantly passionate and stimulating speaker and thinker, Ziauddin Sardar reveals our country anew in Balti Britain: the British Asian Experience. Having travelled to the main Asian communities in the UK, including Glasgow, he interweaves what he found there with his own story, straddled between Pakistani and British cultures: funny, unorthodox,

Stephen Bates & Kathleen Burk NATIONS UNLIMITED

nations

12.30pm | Peppers Theatre | £9.00 £7.00

Powerful perspectives on the USA. Distinguished professor and commentator Kathleen Burk tells the definitive story of Anglo-American relations from the British colonisation to Iraq in Old World, New World. Guardian journalist Stephen Bates looks at the impact of right wing evangelical Christianity in the USA - and its growing influence in the UK - in God's Own Country.

Tony Benn

THE CORNELIAN ASSET MANAGERS EVENT

politics

1.30pm | RBS Main Theatre | £9.00 £7.00

There are few more delightful ways to spend an hour than in the company of Tony Benn. Passionately dedicated to politics and to ordinary people, his warm, funny, feisty diaries record his trenchant views on the political landscape of the past seven years. Engaging and essential. Chaired by Ruth Wishart.

Robert A Hinde & Marek Kohn SOCIETY AND ETHICS

society

2.00pm | ScottishPower Studio Theatre | £9.00 £7.00

Morality and trust in fast-changing twenty first century society are examined with great brilliance and insight by two leading thinkers. Robert A Hinde looks at new moral conflicts and how people actually behave in Bending The Rules; while Marek Kohn shows how trust, or the lack of it, is an increasingly vexing issue in public life – and why it matters so much.

Adrian Levy & Catherine Scott-Clark with Clare Lockhart

nations

NATIONS UNLIMITED

2.30pm | Peppers Theatre | £9.00 £7.00

Failed states – unstable, war-prone, fomenting terrorism and poverty – are a major problem for the world. Clare Lockhart powerfully suggests that the old autonomous nation-state model does not match the realities of a shifting, globalised world. Adrian Levy and Catherine Scott-Clark look at one dangerously unstable state, Pakistan – and how the West has covertly enabled its nuclear capacity, with terrifying consequences.

Agnes Owens in Conversation with James Kelman

fiction

MEET THE AUTHOR

3.30pm | ScottishPower Studio Theatre | £9.00 £7.00

One of the most distinctive voices in Scottish literature, Agnes Owens's darkly humorous stories uncover ordinary working class lives poised between farce and tragedy. Now in her eighties a new complete collection shows her remarkable talent. In conversation with a great admirer and champion of her work, James Kelman.

Hamish Brown & Greg Mortenson

travel

TRAVEL AND ADVENTURE

4.00pm | Peppers Theatre | £9.00 £7.00

An inspiring hour with two remarkable men who engage with remote mountain communities. Scottish climber and adventurer Hamish Brown has returned to the Berber peoples of the Atlas mountains annually since 1965. American mountaineer Greg Mortenson recounts how a failed attempt to climb K2 led him to build schools in Afghanistan and Pakistan.

G W Dahlquist & Thomas Glavinic

world writing

WRITERS OF THE WORLD

4.30pm | Writers' Retreat | £6.00 £4.00

A dark delicious treat. American novelist G W Dahlquist enthralled readers and reviewers with The Glass Books of the Dream Eaters, a vivid fantastic adventure. He now follows it with The Dark Volume, equally alluring and unconventional. Austrian Thomas Glavinic's Night Work is an eerily compulsive philosophical mystery about a man who wakes entirely alone – the last living being on the planet.

Sergio Della Sala SCIENCE AND EDUCATION

society

5.00pm | RBS Corner Theatre | £5.00

A fascinating speaker, the much-admired Professor of Human Cognitive Neuroscience at the University of Edinburgh discusses the use and misuse of neuroscience in education. Medicine and society

Extraordinary advances in medical science have transformed our lives in ways unthinkable a generation ago. But with each new development – stem cell technology for instance – comes a new ethical dilemma. This year we look at the amazing impact and implications of medicine upon society and individuals. Moving from the first mapping of contagious diseases, to the reborn enthusiasm for (arguably unproven) alternative medicine to the thorny moral issues surrounding euthanasia, the Book Festival provides a unique forum to discuss these vital matters. Look out too for our genomics series, where writers and thinkers explore, with you, the fascinating questions and challenges arising from our new understanding of the genetic codes of life.

The environment

The Edinburgh International Book Festival has been at the very vanguard of environmental thinking and action. Long before climate change was on everyone's lips, it was a major subject with us. As well as constantly striving to improve our own environmental practices (see page 71) we have provided an important forum for discussion on the ecological future of our planet. This year we have a special focus on individual responsibility – what can each of us do to take the small but vital steps which will make a difference to our personal and collective futures and, in the end, the survival of our species? In addition, we have a number of events looking at aspects of the natural world – from birds to botany – also vital elements of our environment.

Chaired by Yasmin Alibhai-Brown.

East and West

A defining, timely and essential strand of our festival for the past several years has been an in-depth examination of relations between the Western world and the East – especially, though not exclusively, Islam. In this 60th anniversary year of the founding of the state of Israel, we have a special focus on the Nakbah – the displacement of the Palestinians to make way for the new population, and the seemingly intractable problems which resonate to this day. Equally, we examine Jewish experience and some of the horrors of the Holocaust in Jews in the World. We also offer vital first-hand accounts of British Asian experience: troubling, funny, difficult, frightening, forward-looking and completely part of the fabric of our land.

Visiting with children

Admission free - everyone welcome!

The Book Festival is a great place for children – a safe family-friendly space where both children and accompanying adults can feel at home, have some fun and be inspired. We have answered some of the more frequently asked questions below to help make your visit as enjoyable as possible.

How long are children's events?

All events last one hour unless otherwise indicated on the event listing.

Do I have to accompany my child to author events?

We strongly suggest adults accompany children under ten to all events, except workshop activities (see below).

How can I tell if the event is a workshop or not?

All workshops have this symbol

workshop

Do I have to accompany my child in a workshop?

Adults are not specifically required to accompany children to workshops since they are small sessions. If you would like to attend the workshop with your child you do not need to buy a ticket, but as space is limited only one accompanying adult per participating child will be admitted. Additional babies or siblings will only be admitted at our discretion. If you do not accompany your child, we would request that you stay in the gardens near the event – they are the perfect place to read and relax while you are waiting.

How do I know if the event is suitable for my child?

To help you choose the most suitable event, we've included a recommended age range for each. These ages are carefully chosen in consultation with the publisher and author or event leader, taking into account the length, content and format of each event.

Latecomers policy

To ensure events remain enjoyable and relaxing for you and for authors, please be aware we do not admit latecomers into events once the doors have been closed and we don't give refunds on tickets purchased. However, we recognise that people with very young children may need to leave the venue unexpectedly and our staff will be on hand to help you leave as discreetly as possible, and to help you back in should you wish to return.

Is there anywhere I can leave my pushchair?

Yes – in the Bookstart Buggy Park in Charlotte Square Gardens next to the RBS Corner Theatre (see site map on page 72). If you wish, you may leave your pushchair or buggy here for the duration of your visit to the Book Festival. Please be aware that the Bookstart Buggy Park is not staffed and items are left at the owner's risk.

Do you sell books for children?

We have two large bookshops in Charlotte Square Gardens. The RBS Children's Bookshop is designed just for children (literature for adults is stocked in the main bookshop) and stocks thousands of titles for all ages and tastes from babies through to teens. There are also free Activity and Reading Corners at the back of the bookshop where children can read and play.

Can I bring my own food and drink?

Yes, of course! Sit on the grass and picnic for as long as you wish – you don't have to see an event to do so. We have provided water taps (see site map on page 72) in the garden so you can fill up water bottles.

More children's events available...

The RBS Schools Programme is created especially for schools but if tickets are still available, individuals can book these events at the special price of £2 from Mon 30 June. The RBS Schools Programme includes over 40 author events and creative workshops for all ages. For more information call the Box Office on 0845 373 5888 or download the schools brochure from www.edbookfest.co.uk.

Help us to help the environment

At the Book Festival we are constantly looking at ways to reduce our impact on the environment and share knowledge on environment issues through our events. To find out what changes we've made visit our website www.edbookfest.co.uk.

Events on the environment

Every year we invite experts on the environment to speak about and debate the issues, and exchange ideas with you and with each other. There is a series of events in this year's programme with an environmental focus – please come along and be inspired! Look out for events with this symbol:

environment

Download a brochure

Save paper – a version of this brochure is available to download on our website www.edbookfest.co.uk, and you can also browse events and buy tickets online.

Recycle your brochures

Our brochure is printed on 100% recycled paper. Once you have finished with your copy, please consider passing it on to a friend or returning it to the display racks or the programme recycling bins provided on site. All programmes left at the end of the festival will be recycled.

Refill your water bottles

Save money and refill your water bottles from our public drinking-water taps rather than buying more bottles of water (see site map on page 72).

Use our recycling facilities

We have a comprehensive recycling programme with bins situated around the gardens for paper, plastic, glass and cans. Although we already recycle much of our waste during the festival we'd like to do more. You can help us by using the appropriate wheelie bin for your rubbish. They are positioned on the grass at regular intervals around the gardens (see picture). Our onsite staff are happy to help you if you need assistance.

Canvas book bags

Our wonderful new canvas book bags will be available free in The Bookshop at this year's festival to reduce the number of plastic carrier bags used. The bag has been kindly provided by our media partners The Times and Sunday Times Scotland. We are also reducing the number of plastic carrier bags we produce this year and those we do produce are made from recycled materials.

Come rain or shine...

Our beautiful garden is a great, atmospheric space to enjoy an alfresco drink or two with friends in the daytime or the evening. As we no longer provide outdoor heaters in the evening due to their adverse environmental impact, be sure to bring along warm clothes in case the weather turns chilly.

Travel by public transport

Parking and traffic in Edinburgh during August is difficult and stressful. If you usually travel to the Book Festival by car why not try public transport instead? Please go to our website www.edbookfest.co.uk for more information about the alternative means of transport available – including details about car share schemes.

Accommodation in Edinburgh

If you're looking for a place to stay during your visit to Edinburgh, you can now check which hotels and B&Bs are proactively reducing their environmental impact at www.green-business.co.uk.

Please visit our website www.edbookfest.co.uk for more information about what we've been up to and our plans for the future.

Art in the Garden

Exhibition: Ric Warren

in association with Edinburgh Art Festival

Our art in the garden this year is by recent graduate of Glasgow School of Art, Ric Warren, who will exhibit a series of sculptural works around Charlotte Square Gardens responding to the theme of climate change.

Ric Warren's intriguing structures and models, made using a variety of materials, attempt to mimic the language of architecture, or intervene with it, to create buildings that hold space but do not offer it. His work is informed by an interest in the physical, political, cultural and environmental impact of urban change on our habitat. His other exhibitions include an outdoor installation for Big in Falkirk Arts Festival (in collaboration with Seattle-based video artists Sierra Stinson) and creating a permanent wall drawing for The Bloom! Project in Brussels. For more information visit Ric Warren's website www.ricwarren.blogspot.com.

For information about other exhibitions around the city during the festival visit www.edinburghartfestival.org. Iceberg, 2008. MDF, Paint, Ink. 370x305x100cm (approx)

Facilities for visitors with disabilities

If you require any more information or assistance for your visit please get in touch with us and we will do our best to help - 0845 373 5888.

- Ramped entrance, fully wheelchair accessible site and free wheelchair hire.
- British Sign Language interpreted events listed as BSL

- Infrared systems in all theatres. Please collect a set of earphones from the Information Desk in the Entrance Tent.
- Guide dogs and hearing dogs welcome.

Artlink's Arts Access Service offers support to disabled visitors to Edinburgh to attend Book Festival events with a volunteer escort. For further information please contact Artlink on 0131 229 3555 or info@artlinkedinburgh.co.uk or Typetalk 18001 0131 229 3555.

This brochure is available in large print, braille and audio cd. Please contact the Book Festival to request a copy on 0131 718 5666 or admin@edbookfest.co.uk

To ensure the site is safe and litter-free we do not permit leafleting in Charlotte Square Gardens or outside the entrance to the Book Festival. No dogs will be admitted into the gardens except hearing and guide dogs.

We employ a roving photographer who takes photographs of events and the gardens during the Book Festival for promotional use.

We reserve the right to refuse entry to the gardens.

The Edinburgh International Book Festival is sited in Charlotte Square Gardens by kind permission of the Charlotte Square Proprietors

The Edinburgh International Book Festival Ltd has its registered office at 5a Charlotte Square, Edinburgh, EH2 4DR and is a company limited by guarantee (no 79939) with charitable status (SC010120).

Booking information

The Box Office opens for booking at 10am on Friday 20 June.

Book your tickets using one of the methods below. Please note: for the first 3 days of booking only (Fri 20 – Sun 22 June) tickets will be limited to 4 per event per booking.

Online

From 10am on 20 June: www.edbookfest.co.uk

By phone 0845 373 5888

Open 10am – 5pm daily from Fri 20 – Sat 28 June, then Mon to Sat only from Mon 30 June to Fri 8 Aug. Once the Book Festival has started on 9 Aug, the telephone lines are open from 9.30am – 8.30pm daily.

Please be aware that the first few days of booking are extremely busy. We will do our best to deal with calls quickly, however you may not get through immediately. Calls from BT landlines are charged at the local rate, regardless of where you are calling from. Charges will vary from other phone networks – please check with your phone provider.

Bv post

Please fill in the booking form opposite and post it to PO BOX 23835, Edinburgh, EH2 4WS. Please fill in all required sections and write clearly so we are able to process your booking.

NEW FOR 2008!

In person

As we have no year-round public building of our own and therefore no Box Office counter, we provide a temporary Box Office counter before the Book Festival starts so those who prefer to book in person can. Please note our Box Office counter can only process in-person bookings.

- For the first 3 days of booking only,
 Fri 20 Jun Sun 22 Jun from 10am 5pm:
 Edinburgh International Conference Centre,
 150 Morrison Street, Edinburgh.
- After the first 3 days of booking, Mon 23 Jun – Fri 8 Aug from 10am – 5pm, Mon to Sat: Waterstones, 83 George Street, Edinburgh.
- Once the Book Festival has opened on 9 August our Box Office counter is on site in Charlotte Square Gardens in the Entrance Tent. Open 9.30am – 8.30pm daily.

Payment

You may pay by Visa / Delta / Maestro / Mastercard. Cheques should be made payable to EdinburghInternational Book Festival. Bookings are subject to a £1 booking fee unless tickets are purchased in person (this is applied to each transaction, not each ticket booked). Tickets cannot be exchanged nor money refunded. Where ticket demand is high for sold out events, we may offer a refund subject to a £1 handling fee.

Concession ticket prices

Concession ticket prices are marked in italics and are available to students, over 60s, Young Scot cardholders, under 16s, registered unemployed and disabled visitors (carer goes free – see details below).

Visitors with disabilities

See page 72 for details of our facilities. Please ask our Box Office staff for information or advice for your particular needs when booking. If your disability requires that you need a carer in order to attend our events, the carer is entitled to a free ticket which should be booked at the same time as your own. Free tickets for carers are not available online.

Parking

During August Edinburgh is extremely busy; traffic is heavy and vacant parking spaces are scarce. We would advise the use of public transport wherever possible. If you do need to come by car, there are metered parking spaces around Charlotte Square and along George Street, including some bays for disabled drivers. There is a multi-storey car park in Castle Terrace, about a ten minute walk away from Charlotte Square.

Latecomers

Please be considerate and arrive in good time for your event. Latecomers are hugely disruptive to audience members and authors and will not be admitted after the beginning of events. Refunds will not be given to latecomers. We recommend you do not book back-to-back events (where one event finishes at the same time the other starts) as it is extremely unlikely you will get to the second event in time for the start. Please note that leaving an event early can also be disruptive to fellow audience members and authors.

Events and seating

Events are 1 hour long unless otherwise specified in the event listing. All our seating is unreserved (seats don't have numbers) and therefore you can sit anywhere in the auditorium you wish.

Dogs

We welcome guide dogs and hearing dogs into events and the gardens. We do not admit other dogs.

All information is correct at the time of going to print. We reserve the right to change or cancel any event in unforeseen circumstances. Please check our website for event updates www.edbookfest.co.uk.
